

European Parliament Lunch Debate

LUNCH DEBATE

The role of artificial intelligence and big data in dementia research

27 September 2022

12:30 – 14:00,

Thon EU Hotel

Rue de la Loi 75, 1040 Brussels, Belgium

DRAFT AGENDA

| | | |
|---------------|---|---|
| 12.30 – 12.35 | Welcome | TBC, MEP , European Alzheimer's Alliance |
| 12.35 – 12.40 | Opening contribution | TBC, MEP , European Alzheimer's Alliance |
| 12.40 – 12.55 | The research perspective: harnessing the power of health data using AI/for research | Petra Ritter , Project Coordinator, VirtualBrainCloud; Berlin Institute of Health at Charité University Hospital |
| 12.55 – 13.10 | Regulatory perspectives on the use of big data in research | Jesper Kjær , co-Chair of the Big Data Steering Group, European Medicines Agency; Director of the Data Analytics Center at the Danish Medicines Agency |
| 13.10 – 13.25 | Opportunities for dementia research from the proposed European Health Data Space | Andrzej Rys , Director for health products and services, DG SANTE, European Commission |
| 13.25 – 13.40 | Raising awareness and engagement on health data with DataSavesLives | Gözde Susuzlu-Briggs , DataSavesLives Coordinator, European Patients Forum |
| 13.40 – 13.55 | Reactions and discussions | All participants |
| 13.55 – 14.00 | Closing remarks | TBC, MEP , European Alzheimer's Alliance |

AE gratefully acknowledges the corporate supporters which contributed to the organisation's activities as gold and silver sponsors.

